It's with deep honor we name the two incredible grandmothers whose great work has laid the foundation upon which the Priestess Presence School of Sacred Arts & Temple is created.

The Quintessia Mystery School is dedicated to the 13 Moon Mystery School, founded by Ariel Spilsbury, which provides structure for the archetypal curriculum we use in our study. This is based on Ariel's guidebook, The 13 Moon Oracle, which is the source material for our Priestess work. We strongly encourage you to order a copy of it for this reason.

The Rosa Mystica Mystery School is co-founded by Diana DuBrow and Elayne Kalila Doughty. The scent priestess training is built on the foundation of Diana's Emerald Temple.

PRIESTESSES PRESENCE

WELCOME

Beloved

Hail and welcome November and the Weaver Dreamer.

As we have passed through the high holy day of Samhain, I feel the longer nights signaling us into dreamtime, where we're called to open ourselves to weave a new dream and story to live by ... individually and collectively.

In the USA, we're standing at a precipice of deep change, where feminine leadership is palpable. Whatever our personal politics, we can feel the power of the feminine rising.

Within the Priestess Presence Temple, we've been intimately woven into the awakening of feminine magic through the remembrance of the archetypes of the priestess, medicine woman, soul midwife, oracle, and seer...

We dream of a world that is more loving, kind, compassionate, caring, and founded upon our oneness ... whilst honoring our diversity.

Over 20 years ago, I took my vow to walk as a Priestess and devote my life to the remembrance of our priestess lineages. Why?

Because I truly felt (and feel!) that as we remembered our lineages, soul gifts, and medicine we would become part of the great awakening of humanity, raising consciousness and creating a new dream of a world that we want to live in.

20 years ago, I didn't know that I would live to see this rising, but with every part of my being, I feel this truth now. I can see it. Can you?

*Elayne Kalila,
Dean of Priestess Presence*

I recently had the pleasure of being with renowned Layla Martin on her incredible podcast, This Tantric Life.

In this episode, I share my experience with the light and the shadow required to walk as a sacred conduit between the physical and spiritual worlds.

As the Goddess would have it, I also share the true source of the witch/priestess wound and the sisterhood wound ... and powerful steps you can take to begin healing them.

On This Tantric Life, Layla and I dive deep into...

- Why spiritual connection is so crucial for living in full wellness and experiencing a life rich with pleasure and presence
- Why it's so important to connect deeply with your lineage on your High Priestess journey
- How to know if you're operating from true love or delusion and use that level of awareness for profound growth

This was such a beautiful experience with Layla and I hope you love watching this episode as much as I did being with her!

SCENT PRIESTESS
LINEAGES

Remembering

SCENT PRIESTESS LINEAGES

Scent Priestesses are reawakening to their aromatic traditions.

They're remembering the art of anointing as vibrational healing, combined with self-blessing and intuitive awakening through the use of holy oils.

Diana, Elayne Kalila, and Jacquie Rose reveal 13 Scent Priestess lineages ... some going back thousands of years before Biblical times, in the great cultures of Sumer, Babylon, Canaan, and Egypt.

Why are these lineages important?

How can reclaiming them support you and our world, now?

Our world is, and has been, in crisis.

People feel alone, isolated, and disconnected from themselves, one another, Mama Gaia, and the Divine.

It's a kind of disassociation, a forgetting of who we truly are, causing a deep ache in the heart of humanity.

There's much in need of repair ... requiring a loving, hands-on devotion to heal.

We feel this deeply in our bodies, because as priestesses, we hold the portal for the old world to die and a new one to be born.

This is challenging, transformational work.

Thankfully, many of us have been remembering two ancient, profoundly interconnected, Scent Priestess lineages that have historically shown us how to tend to ourselves, and the collective, during times of great change and transition: The Myrrhophores and Magdalenes.

Myrrhophores & Magdalenas

The 3,000-year-old secret sect of anointing priestesses, the Myrrhophores, is believed to have initiated the Magdalene as a Scent Priestess within the Order of the Rose.

Scent & touch, offered in the sacred art of anointing, are two of the most powerful sensory medicines...

They open us to the wisdom of our soul while keeping us grounded in the here and now.

The Myrrhophores knew this. The Magdalenas knew this. All scent priestesses know this.

Explore these two rich lineages with Diana, Elayne, and Jacquie, as they share how the Myrrhophores and the Magdalenas, alongside the other 11 Scent Priestess lineages, can guide us in our modern lives.
